

Bistro du Vin

Wine First. Always.

From the very beginning, Hotel du Vin was created with one guiding principle, the wine comes first. Our cellar is more than a list; it's a journey through vineyards, vintages, and stories, carefully curated to surprise, delight, and inspire. Every bottle has a character, a place it calls home, and a reason it's found its way here.

This philosophy has shaped everything we do. Exceptional wines, enjoyed without pretense, deserve food crafted with the same respect and attention, honest, flavoursome bistro dishes that let the wine shine. The magic lies in the pairing: the way a sip can lift a flavour, or a bite can reveal a hidden note in the glass.

That's why our wine list comes before the menu. Because here, the glass is the starting point, the dish its perfect companion. At Hotel du Vin, we invite you to take your time, explore, and savour, because every great glass deserves a great plate alongside it.

Bistro Du Vin Wine List

Wine; the very lifeblood of our Hotels & Bistros. You will find us passionate, but not pretentious; excited, but not elitist. We are here to help you explore, discover, or simply enjoy your favourites. Our expert in-house wine ambassadors and bar teams can draw from a cellar with an extensive mix of wines from around the world. It promises something for everyone ~ from a simplified selection of quaffable wines by the glass, to sophisticated and complex varieties from leading wine makers from every continent.

French food and wine are at the heart of Bistro du Vin and we have a selection of wines we are immensely proud of, from across the many notable wine appellations in France. Here you will find each of the regions and the wines currently featured within this list:

To Decant or Not to Decant?

The question of 'should wine always be decanted' is regularly asked by our guests. Before we can answer this let us look at the two main reasons why we decant wine. Firstly, to oxidate the wine through the transfer of wine from the bottle to the decanter, and the increased surface area of the wine to air contact in the decanter. This oxidation helps to soften the acidity in the wine and makes the wine 'smoother' and more enjoyable to drink. Secondly, the process of decanting helps to remove any sediment from the wine. However, does this mean that all wines should be decanted, and the answer is no!

Styles of wine that get the most benefit from being decanted are those either with high levels of sediment or bigger more full-bodied reds such as Barolo from Italy and Cabernet based wines. These styles of wine are full bodied and high in tannins, the decanting process therefore helps to make these wines softer and more enjoyable to drink. Other wines, for instance most whites and lighter reds such as Pinot Noir, tend not to benefit from the decanting process and may even deteriorate from being decanted. However, ultimately the choice of whether you wish to have your wine decanted or not is yours, we will just recommend the wines that benefit most from the decantation process.

Old World vs New World

Terms used frequently in the wine world, but what do they really mean? Well, there are a number of differences between New World and Old World wine growing countries and all of them have exceptions to the rules! Primarily most European countries are classed as Old World, since wine making originated in these countries and dates back hundreds of years. However, a more significant difference is the labelling terminology. Most wines that originate from Old World countries, such as France, Spain and Italy, are named after the place where they are produced. Whereas wines from the New World are often named after the grape variety or the brand name given by the producer, or both!

For example, Chablis, Bordeaux, Rioja, Barolo, Sancerre and Champagne are all places that are iconic for producing wines and they all have strict laws over what they can and cannot do in their grape growing and wine making, even down to which varieties they can or cannot grow. The New World does not have the same type of laws, hence you can have a 'Chardonnay' labelled wine from all over the world. However, unless you know which Old World wine region is permitted to grow which varieties you may not know that Chablis make wines from Chardonnay grapes and Sancerre from Sauvignon Blanc grapes!

BARON BIGOD Suffolk, England
A full-flavoured Brie-style cheese, handmade in Suffolk by Jonny Crickmore using milk from his own herd of Montbéliarde cows. It has a smooth, silky texture and a golden curd, with long, complex flavours of farmyard, morels, and warm earth.

ASHLYNN Worcestershire, England
A cheese of contrasts in more ways than one. Ashlynn has a striking monochrome appearance thanks to its pure white interior set against a dark ash-coated rind and a vein of charcoal running through its centre. The paste is fabulously buttery, but a spear of lemony sharpness pierces the richness and opens up intriguing savoury depths with a tingle of spice.

SPARKENHOE RED LEICESTER
Warwickshire, England
Sparkenhoe, made by David and Jo Clarke, is England's only unpasteurised Red Leicester cheese. It uses a traditional recipe and raw milk. Bound in cloth and matured for six to eight months, it has a superb sweet, nutty flavour and a citrus finish. The distinctive red colour comes from the addition of a harmless vegetable dye called annatto, a tradition that stretches back to the 17th century when a rich golden colour was seen as a sign of quality.

BARKHAM BLUE Berkshire, England
Barkham Blue is a semi-soft blue cheese made using super-creamy Guernsey and Jersey milk, which gives the final cheese a gorgeously buttery, melt-in-the-mouth consistency without the harsh tang associated with some blues. Handmade daily using traditional techniques, its distinctive shape comes from draining and moulding the curd in kitchen colanders. It's a cheese that is as visually striking as it is complex in flavour - decadently creamy, delicately blue, and utterly moreish.

A BRITISH INSTITUTION WITH FRENCH INFLUENCE

Dating back to King Henry VII, meats were traditionally roasted in front of a fire on a Sunday. Since the 15th century, the royal bodyguards have been known as 'Beefeaters' because of their love of roast beef. In the 18th century the French started calling Englishmen 'rosbifs'.

Our Sunday 'rosbif' starts with a choice of appetisers from our French Market Table, followed by a traditional Roast du Vin or choice of Plat Principaux and finally followed by a delicious dessert.
